Where to Eat

The Independent's early winter guide to Outer Cape restaurants that are open now

BY KATIE O'BRIEN · DEC 3, 2025

You got a parking spot, easy. The off-season can be generous that way. But that “See you next spring!” sign on the door isn’t what you’re out on the town for. Best to call ahead — days and hours are a little iffy when things slow down, but there are still plenty of places ready to welcome you for everything from donuts to dumplings.

The Wicked Oyster

Open every night

Oysters and burgers happy hour, 4 to 6 p.m.; dinner from 4 p.m.; live music Tues. and Thurs.
